Summary

About this Release

ABOUT THIS RELEASE

The raw data file (IDS02.CSV) on the CD-ROM version of the 2002-03 Survey of Income and Housing Basic CURF released in August 2005 contained an error in the data item IFAMTBCP (Current weekly income from family tax benefits) which also affected the aggregate income items. The new CD-ROM contains a corrected version of the file IDS02.CSV. This is the only file being replaced. All other files on the CURF CD-ROM released in August 2005 were correct, including the SAS, SPSS and STATA versions of the data file which are used by the majority of clients. RADL versions of the CURF are not affected by the error.
